Love FaceMaster / Peppermint ★★★★★7/6/2008

I have 2 FaceMasters - I have an old one and recently purchased one of the new ones. I love it. As many others have stated, the solution is much too expensive. I'm going to make my own solution or go to a medical supply store and purchase the solution. I have heard you can purchase ultra sound conductive solution in a large qty for much less than the SS solution.

Wish I had started using sooner! / Nicole, TX ★★★★★7/5/2008

I purchased this back in October and did not open it due to travel - was too busy to sit down and watch the video. Saw Suzanne Somers on recently and opened this up to use. Was a little surprised with the initial shock, but I love it - saw immediate results & had people at the office said that I looked radiant that day! 4 stars instead of 5 just b/c it was a bit complicated getting started and the expense of purchasing the booties and fluid to continue using. Thanks Suzanne for keeping us looking fabulous!

Love the FaceMaster / Darla, MO ★★★★★7/2/2008

I have only been using the FaceMaster for a week and I can already see some improvement in my face. I am 65 and I didn't think anything could help my face. Most of my problem was in the forehead the 11 and the lines around my mouth. I don't have many wrinkles but I do have the saggy jowls. Does anyone use anything other than the conductive lotion that comes with it.

Suzanne definitely doesn't need botox with this... / Dite, IA ★★★★★6/30/2008

Grew up in modeling industry and have seen botoxed, plastic surged faces-after using this product, I can safely say Suzanne does not need botox if she is using this religiously. Be POSITIVE, give it a REAL trial period and you'll see that those funny shocks to your face are really truly working out your face muscles. My jowls are gone, eye hollows are gone, "parenthesis" look like a 20 year old, and my eyebrows are back where they belong. I DARE YOU...TO LOOK LIKE A BETTER MORE YOUTHFUL YOU!

I GOT LIPS! FINALLY / Nancy, CA ★★★★★6/30/2008

I got this product a week ago, and believe me, I had a pencil thin lip line. I now have lips!!!! and I am sure they and my face will keep benefiting from using this product. My eyes have already started to open up and I am 56 years old, and finally feel that I will look my age or younger real soon, Thanks Susan Somers!

Can't believe it! / RI ★★★★★4/29/2008

I'm sorry I waited for this . this product "ROCKS"

REALLY WORKS / BRENDA, LA ★★★★★6/23/2008

LIL SKEPTICAL AT FIRST BUT IT REALLY WORKS. 38, COMPLETE HYST, SKIN OF AN OLD WOMAN. USED TWICE IN 2 DAYS. BIG DIFFERENCE! CROWSFEET, CREPENESS GONE! CHIN & JAWLINE DEFINED! EYES & CHEEKS, AMAZING! MOM IS 59, HEAVYSET, ROUND FACE. DID HALF OF HER FACE TO MAKE SURE IT WASN'T ALL IN MY HEAD. HAD TO DO THE OTHER HALF SO IT WOULD MATCH!!!

Ladies in your 50's...be BRAVE! / Kathy, TN ★★★★★5/27/2008

I am 54 and my facial muscles were beginning to show improvement; I was noticing firmer muscles but after 6 weeks...so I recommend to be diligent in daily use of the product. I believe this is a great product.

WOW! This thing really works!! / Renee'', CA ★★★★★5/20/2008

Now 38..I just ordered the new FM. I have used it daily for 3-weeks. WOW RESULTS! The lines near my nose are diminishing and the deep lines under my eyes are too! The feathering works wonders! It is just like any other exercise, if you stick to your program you will see unbelievable results!! It does sting a little sometimes, but the results far exceed any uncomfortable sensations. I am sure they are far less than injections. Great product!

Finally a product that actually works! / Caroline, NC ★★★★★5/15/2008

Turning 40 next month & ordered the FM & it didn't disappoint. I noticed dramatic improvement in my eye area which was always puffy looking. It also took away my bags & the slight sagging around my mouth. P.S. I get the best results using fresh probe tips w/each use.

Excellent / Nona, FL ★★★★★5/12/2008

Really stimulates muscles. Makes a big difference in contouring face. I have to be careful because I have a lot of electricity in my body and sometimes I shock myself, just be careful.

EXCELLENT PRODUCT! / Candice, NC ★★★★★5/9/2008

I have only used this product twice, but I noticed a HUGE difference in my FACE after each use! I am going to use for 30 days three times a week, and I am sure I will be pleased. I am 36 and starting to notice loss of firmness and nose to mouth is really showing. It does STING a little, but as you get use to it, it doesn't bother you...I HIGHLY suggest 30 somethings (like myself) start now.

Got help at 59 / Jackie, OR ★★★★★5/9/2008

I thought the wrinkles and saggy face were here to stay at the age of 59, I got the Face Master 3 weeks ago and my face looks so much better and a lot smoother and softer. It looked so much better that I was afraid of being with out one, so I ordered another for my Motor Home. I had a serious surgery done 2 1/2 years ago and aged a lot, but thanks to this product it has given back the years I lost on my face. I will never be with out one. Thank you.

Works GREAT / Dee, MN ★★★★★4/14/2008

I love it !! I could see my face improve from the first time I used it.

Love this! / Stephanie, MO ★★★★★5/8/2008

I am 36, and just starting to show the signs of aging. WOW, I noticed a huge difference after I use the FaceMaster. It does take me about 20 minutes to, but WELL worth it. If you make the time, and stick to it, you will not regret it. (FYI- it does feel weird, and a tiny bit stingy...but it doesn't hurt as bad as my 4 inch high heels! Ha, ha.)

So excited! / Edie, CA ★★★★★4/29/2008

I just received mine today and couldn't wait to use it. I've just used it one time and already notice what it's done for my jowl; under and around my eyes, and my mouth. Everything looks filled in and tighter. I'm too young to look old and tired. I know this is going to work for me. As for the solution, I'm not sure if anything else can substitute it. If the solution gives me better results, then that's what I'm using. Thanks!

Yikes!!! It works!!!! / Marilyn, OK ★★★★★4/22/2008

Goodness! Was I ever surprised. I never really expected it to do much. I don't look 10 years younger but my 62 year old skin is firmer looking and lines are softer. This skeptic is keeping her FaceMaster. Now please offer help for the neck.

SKEPTICAL!! NOT ANY MORE! / Lyrac, PA ★★★★★4/12/2008

I resisted buying this. I figured it was just another "hype". But I've been reading Suzanne's books and am a huge fan of her "Ageless". I figured I could trust Suzanne. When I saw the FaceMaster was on sale with no S&H, I thought I'd give it a try and return it if it didn't work. I used it once...and it works!! My friend told me how good I looked! My eyes look more rested and open, my "marionette" lines are much better, and my chin and jowl looks more lifted! After 1 use! I'm keeping it!

WAKES UP MY FACE & FEELS ALIVE!!! / Kris, CA ★★★★★4/10/2008

I use it because it gives my eyes and entire face this amazing AWAKE and ALIVE feeling! My eyes just have this instant awake feeling (even when I am so tired). Of course there are results but I use it twice daily because of how ALIVE and AWAKE it makes my face FEEL! Buy it for the feeling it gives, and the results are just the plus! I use it while working out on my stepper twice daily; I get my body and face twice a day and FEEL great!

A must-have ★★★★★1/5/2008

I've had the FaceMaster for a few weeks, and I was surprised to see that it actually works if you use it consistently. I'm under 30, and I bought it more as a preventative measure, but I have noticed a subtle difference in the contours of my face. It stings a bit at first, but you'll become accustomed to it- give it a try!

Oh My Gosh, it really works!!!!!! / Marlana, GA ★★★★★4/9/2008

Skeptical, but 30 day M/B guarantee, no loss, right! I will not be sending back. I'm 40, used twice, and don't look a day over 30. My husband said I wouldn't be needing those filler injections after all! I was ready to spend $1,400.00 for injections, no way now. Thank you so much Suzanne for bringing this product to HSN. Why didn't I know about this before now?!

This drops 15 years off my age ★★★★★4/4/2008

Just bought one for my sister. I've had mine for over a year and Love it. Since it's on sale with free s&h, I just had to get a backup for me, too. It's one of my best purchases from HSN.

Dating younger men ★★★★★4/6/2008

I have been using the face master since Suzanne Somers first introduced it and it's the best product I have ever purchased from HSN. I do look ten years younger and have dated men from 10 years younger to 10 years older and levels the playing field for women over 40. Finally! What a great product ...You WILL not look like you've had a face lift, you will just look YOUNGER than your age. Amazing.

NEVER LEAVE HOME WITHOUT THIS FOR SURE! / KELLY, MA ★★★★★

Regardless of what the negative comments are, I am a 40 year old woman who uses the face master. I have been using it for only 4 days now, and it DOES work. My husband came home after the first evening I used it, and asked me how much I spent on fillers. He was amazed to find that I had not spent a dime. Just the face master. Although I don't have deep wrinkles, I was starting to get the "parentheses" (nasal labial fold's) quite severely from my nose, down past my bottom lip. After only 4 uses of the face master, they are almost completely gone. It has also virtually diminished the expression lines in my forehead, and the "11:00" lines between my eyes as well. I'm quite sure it's not as dramatic as a face lift, but I assure you the face master has taken 6-8 years off of my appearance. For a cost of $100.00, versus $5,000.00 for a face lift, I'll take it!

I will continue to use my face master, and should mine quit working, will promptly replace! Thank you Suzanne Somers for bringing this technology to the public.
